LakeB2B

One stack behind the whole revenue motion.

Every enterprise sits on a lake of data. Most cannot use it.

LakeB2B is the B2B growth stack that turns that depth into pipeline. One integrated platform, four verticals covering lead generation, campaigns, recruitment, and bespoke CXO strategy. We are not a vendor in one box. We are the infrastructure behind your full revenue motion, built on a single promise: ENABLING GROWTH.

CATEGORY	The B2B growth stack
PROMISE	ENABLING GROWTH
PROOF	Four integrated verticals: SalesTech, MarTech, RecruitTech, GrowthTech
FOUNDATION	Deep data reservoirs, the depth of the lake
OUTCOME	Pipeline, campaigns, talent, and CXO level strategy

The full lifecycle, one platform.

SalesTech

Unleashing data-driven lead generation

Targeted prospect intelligence and enriched contact data that turn the reservoir into qualified pipeline for your sales teams.

MarTech

Elevating marketing strategies with data-driven insights

Audience, intent, and campaign infrastructure that make every marketing motion sharper, measurable, and built to convert.

RecruitTech

Revolutionizing recruitment processes

Talent data and sourcing intelligence that help enterprises find, reach, and hire the right people, faster.

GrowthTech

Bespoke solutions for CXOs

Custom, strategy-led engagements for revenue leaders who need the full stack shaped around a specific growth thesis.

WHAT THE STACK GIVES YOU

- ▶ One integrated platform instead of a patchwork of single point vendors
- ▶ Data intelligence built on deep, continuously refreshed reservoirs
- ▶ Sales, marketing, recruitment, and CXO strategy under one partnership
- ▶ Modularity to start in one vertical and scale across the full lifecycle
- ▶ Enterprise-grade precision, speed, and measurable outcomes

BUILT FOR REVENUE LEADERS

Ways to plug in the stack.

MODEL	BEST FOR	WHAT IT COVERS
Data as a Service	Teams that need reliable, enriched data on tap	Prospect and account intelligence, enrichment, and continuous data refresh feeding your existing systems.
Campaign as a Service	Marketing and demand-gen leaders	Managed, multi-channel campaigns built on LakeB2B data, from audience to activation to reporting.
Managed Growth	CXOs scaling a full revenue motion	Bespoke, strategy-led engagement across the verticals, shaped around a specific growth thesis.

EVERY ENGAGEMENT INCLUDES

- ▶ A named partnership team, not a ticket queue
- ▶ Data and reporting transparency at every stage
- ▶ A clear path to scale into adjacent verticals when you are ready

Simple to start.

- 1 Discovery. A short working session to map your revenue motion and the data you already sit on.
- 2 Fit. We identify the vertical and engagement model that will move your number fastest.
- 3 Pilot. A scoped first engagement with clear metrics, so value is visible before you scale.
- 4 Scale. Expand across the stack as outcomes compound, from one vertical to the full lifecycle.

Let's build your growth stack.

Bring the data. We turn it into pipeline, campaigns, and talent.
